The Northeast Michigan Human Resource Association presents

2015 Labor Law Supervisor Training

With guest presenter
Elizabeth L. Peters from Masud Labor Law Group

Liz brings more than 35 years of labor and employment experience to the firm. She assists clients in all areas of labor and employment law and has developed and taught management training programs and has authored published articles in labor and employment law and contract interpretation. She is a trained meeting facilitator and strives for

Seminar topics include: Hire the Best and Avoid the Rest, Discipline and Discharge, Effective Communication, and Observable

Wednesday, November 4, 2015

Time: 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. (check-in begins at 7:30 a.m.)

Location: The Sanctuary Inn and Conference Center, 1000 US 23 North, Alpena, MI 49707

Cost: $40 per person for member companies of the Northeast Michigan Human Resource Association or Alpena Area Chamber

Questions? Contact Kathy Himes at kathyh@alpena.mi.us or 989-354-1714.

This seminar is brought to you by

NEMHRA

Affiliate of

SHRM

In partnership with

Alpena Area Chamber of Commerce

NEMHRA is the Northeast Michigan Human Resource Association, a SHRM affiliate. They are a group of Human Resource professionals who gather throughout the year to learn about current issues and trends in Human Resources and business. The group offers great, low cost access to education, information and networking.
To pay with credit card (Visa, MasterCard, and Discover), please complete the following:

Credit Card Number: ______________________________________________________________________

Credit card billing street number: ________________  Credit card billing zip code: ________________

Credit Card Expiration Date: ________________  Credit Card security code: ________________

Signature: _______________________________________________________________________________